

Std-5th.

F.A3

Sub: M.V

Q.I. Fill in the blanks. [5]

1. Florence Nightingale was born on May 12 - 1820
2. Her parents were shocked to hear that she was to be a nurse (Parents, Nurse)
3. She became the superintendent of a charitable hospital in London (superintendent, charitable)
4. Her dedication saved the lives of many soldiers during the war that broke out in Europe.
5. Nursing is a noble profession to day because of Florence's caring heart. (caring)
6. Runital was a beautiful lake by a town in the lower Himalayas. (town, lake, Himalayas)
7. The Tusker of Runi was a ten foot tall elephant. (ten, bull, elephant)
8. The British decided to lay a railway line to make the journey easier. (railway line, road)
9. Digging of slopes and cutting of trees cause landslides in Runi Tal. (slopes, trees)
10. Man should live in harmony with nature. (harmony, fight)
11. The woman wanted to make an offering to Buddha (Buddha)
12. The disciples were surprised, her lamp still burning. (still burning)
13. Buddha said the lamp was offered with devotion with true devotion (true, devotion)
14. She worked hard and bought some oil (oil)
15. Right effort and right action lead to wisdom (wisdom)

Q.2. Tick Marks ✓ or x.

1. Florence Nightingale was called "The Lady of the Lamp." (✓)
2. Florence Nightingale did not have a caring nature. (x)
3. She looked after soldiers wounded in the war with love. (✓)
4. Florence Nightingale came from a poor family. (✓)
5. She wrote personally to the family of every soldier who died in the hospital. (✓)
6. Runital was a beautiful town. (✓)
7. Man should not live in harmony with nature. (x)
8. Digging of slopes and cutting of trees can cause landslides. (✓)
9. Nature has her own way of teaching its lessons. (✓)
10. The lamp was offered with false devotion. (x)
11. The disciples tried to blow out the woman's lamp. (✓)
12. Right effort and right action lead to wisdom. (✓)

Q.3. Answers the following.

- 1. When did Florence Nightingale was born?
- 2. What did British decided for journey to Tibet?
- 3. Why did landslides happen?
4. Why did the woman want to make an offering to Buddha?
5. What surprised the disciples in the morning?
6. Why could the lamp not be put off?

- 7 What helps one to attain true wisdom?
- 8 Why did Florence called "The lady with lamp?"
- 9 Why did Florence's parents shock?
- 10 Which line still remain as a reminder?
11. [The diary of Chap. 7, 8, 9.]

Q.9. Answers the following: (Chap. 7, 8) CSto

1. What was the title of the story (Chap. 7)?
2. What little creature give us silk?
3. What orders did the kings of China give to their people?
4. Who said to have taken the secret to another country?
5. When does the silk moth lay her eggs?
6. What was the title of the story? (Chap. 8)
7. In which part of the world did the story take place?
8. How did the people travel across the country?
9. Where did they decide to settle?
10. What did the people plant in the fields?

Q.5. Write following paragraph in Cursive Writing

Write paragraph in cursive writing.

The king made it known to the people that any person who was in trouble, sick or hungry, need only ring the bell and summon the judges to ask for help. For many years the hungry came and rang the bell and were fed, the sick rang and were healed, the unhappy rang and were comforted. The rope was pulled so often that the end of it frayed, and the keepers of the belfry tied up the loose threads with bits of straw.