Q. 5. Write a following paragraph in cursive writing.
When we carry out our responsibilities that we are truly free.
Freedom does not mean one can do whatever one desires. That would cause a state of confusion. The story shows how sometimes it can lead to a dangerous situation too. If the people had used their freedom with responsibility, the boy would not have been in danger. His life was saved because there was still one person who had used freedom with responsibility. We live in a free country but each of us has a role to fulfill. It is only shyly, feeling nervous or uncomfortable, hesitation.
